

Adam Crowe

roots acoustic fingerstyle guitar

Hawaii and SF Bay area based Adam Crowe blends together delta blues, roots folk, hawaiiana and americana styles. His solo work can be compared to artists like Leo Kottke, Neil Young, & Nick Drake. Adam is a versatile guitarist, accomplished at classical and acoustic styles.

Adam performs as a solo fingerstyle guitarist in settings such as festivals, weddings, restaurants, corporate events & parties.

With his band "Freesound" Adam has performed in over 700 shows in the past 7 years including the Monterey Bay Blues Festival, Seattle Hempfest mainstage, Monterey Bay Reggae Fest, Summer Arts & Music, Koots Roots Festival and the 40th Anniversary Summer of Love as well as county fairs, colleges and top venues.

Adam and the band have supported blues artists Norton Buffalo, Paul Wood, Chris Cain and world music artists Aphrodesia, as well as international reggae artists- Israel Vibrations, Culture, The Itals, Clinton Fearon, Pato Banton, Bambu Station, Mikey Dread and others.

Review

"For a true traditional approach to blues and extraordinary guitar picking lookno further than Adam Crowe. He is a walking time machine taking you back to the core of blues with every track. When seen live his music and voice sets a mood that is undeniable, and he plays for the listener not himself. Adam Crowe is a true blessing to music.
